IN MEMORIAM.

Again the Great Worthy Chief, who rules above, has spoken, and another of our little band has been called from the field of strife below, to God's Temple of repose above. Brother HENRY BYERS is no more! In him we recognized an earnest, consistent and faithful laborer in the cause of Temperance and Morality-beloved by us, respected by his friends. His days were few-his sun went down ere it was noon, but it had already glowed with the brilliancy of mid-day. Which one of our band shall next pass away, and solve by tirely forgotten, or whether any event of happy experience, the question propounded by our Ritual: "If a man die, shall he live again?" Which one? May the query: "Shall it be I ?" be asked in every heart; and when the response from God is "yes," to each of us, may we lay aside the
